A Proclamation of Thanksgiving

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

STATE OF ARIZONA

Since that memorable day in America's history when our ancestors first gathered on the bleak shores of New England and there proclaimed their gratitude in unison to Almighty God for all those blessings providentially bestowed upon them, it has been the custom of the American people to set apart annually a day for the renewing of thanks to the Creator in fitting recognition of divine mercies and benefactions. This custom, universally approved, is properly perpetuated in the State of Arizona and observance thereof is commended by law. In other words, it is particularly solemnly that Arizona's citizens should celebrate, in the present year, the annual day of Thanksgiving, for harvests have been bountiful and the pursuits of industry have been fruitful beyond compare. In other words, also, that those of merely material benefit the people of the State rods; thence North 80 rods; thence East 60 rods; thence South 80 rods to the place of beginning, the hearing of which has been fixed for Monday, the 18th day of December, 1916, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Court House in Safford, Arizona, and all persons interested in said estate are motified then and there to appear and show cause, if any, why said order should not be made.
